About Us

Founded in 1990, Beantown is a non-profit volleyball club in the Boston and MetroWest area. The club is an established member of the New England Region Volleyball Association and the USA Volleyball Junior Olympic Program. For more than 25 years, Beantown has been catering to volleyball players of middle school and high school ages focusing on providing a positive setting where youths can improve their volleyball skills in a healthy competitive environment.

Building on and enhancing our players' enthusiasm for the game, Beantown's programs teach volleyball skills as well as sportsmanship, discipline, self-confidence, goal achievement, teamwork, and a drive to always excel.
